

DJORDJE ZIVANOVIC

COMPUTER SCIENCE STUDENT

Profile

I am a highly motivated and open-minded young man that really wants to know as much as one possibly can. My starting point is software development, but I do not plan to finish there. I want to understand economics and finance, marketing, accounting... but also I want to travel and get to know other cultures, hear new music, see new landscapes, drive cars I have never seen before. The list is long, and my journey has just started. I actively played basketball during my education, but now it is a hobby, along side reading. Thanks to the internet, I am actively expanding my knowledge in various fields and occasionally I occupy myself with reselling items online.

Experience

Data Collection & Labeling Associate

Microsoft | Aug 2020 - Oct 2020

Working as a part of Office DC&L Belgrade team. My role was to collect and label big amounts of data, that is later used by ML/AI algorithms for developing new features for Microsoft Office.
